

Norsk Boston Terrier Klubb is proud to present the judge for our Boston Terrier Specialty Show in Tjelta, Norway 06.sept 2025

Mr Chad Howard from USA

A Legacy in Boston Terriers

Chad Howard's journey with Boston Terriers began 47 years ago when he finished his first champion. Since then, he has dedicated his life to this beloved breed, becoming a prominent figure as a breeder, owner, handler, and judge.

His passion and commitment have not only shaped the lives of countless Boston Terriers but also influenced the wider dog-show community.

Champion Breeder and Handler

Chad has achieved remarkable success as both a breeder and a handler. Over the years, he has made up numerous champions, consistently showcasing the quality and excellence of his Boston Terriers. His expertise has earned him many Best of Breed awards at specialty shows, particularly with various bitches that he has bred and owned. Impressively, Chad has twice bred, owned, and shown The Top Boston Terrier, 2015 and 2024.

Esteemed Judge

In addition to his accomplishments as a breeder and handler, Chad Howard has been a respected judge at numerous specialty shows across the United States. Among his many honors, he has judged the Boston Terrier Club of America National Specialty. More recently, he was privileged to judge the Boston Terrier Championship Show's 90th Anniversary in England, a prestigious event that underscores his international reputation and expertise in the breed.

Contributions to the Boston Terrier Community

Chad's influence extends beyond the show ring. He has served on the board of directors for the Boston Terrier Club of America, where he has been instrumental in educational initiatives. He remains a board-approved mentor, sharing his knowledge and experience with aspiring breeders and judges. Moreover, Chad has been selected by the American Kennel Club to present the breed to aspiring judges, further cementing his role as a key figure in the education and promotion of Boston Terriers.

Chad Howard's enduring dedication to Boston Terriers has left a lasting impact on the breed and the community that surrounds it. His legacy is one of excellence, education, and passion—a testament to his lifelong love for Boston Terriers.